Creating positive impact throughout the agricultural value chain in India

Origo Commodities (Origo) was founded in 2010 and provides post-harvest agriculture supply chain financing and logistics solutions in India. Origo's vision is to transform fragmented commodity supply chains into an integrated and efficient ecosystem, creating value in an inclusive and sustainable manner for all participants, from primary producer to end consumer. The company's business model gives Origo the opportunity to reach all participants in the agriculture value chain and create a positive impact throughout the chain. Origo's services support farmers, traders, processors, bulk buyers, warehouse owners, financial institutions and micro-, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs). A subsidiary of Origo Commodities, Origo Finance, offers a range of loans such as warehouse receipt finance, procurement finance and finance for MSMEs. Origo Finance has a network of branches in Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Maharashtra and Karnataka. Origo and Oikocredit began their collaboration in 2013. In 2018 Origo managed agriculture commodities worth INR 8,000 crores (€ 1 billion) across 12 states in India.
